FARMERS MEET AND ORGANIZE.

About one hundred representative farmers of the county met in the courthouse in Hardinsburg Monday, in pursuance to a call in the resolutions adopted at the farmers' meeting in Hardinsburg on February 8. Thirty school districts were represented by delegates appointed at school district meetings on last Saturday.

The meeting was enthusiastic and promises much benefit for the farmers if all their plans are carried out.

The meeting was called to order by Granville Wilson, Jas. Rhodes, Ken Rhodes and Mat Shrewsbury were appointed a Committee on Credentials.

Mr. Shrewsbury moved that the organization be made permanent for twelve months or longer.

Granville Wilson, Mat Shrewsbury and Jas. Miller were nominated for president and Mr. Wilson was elected.

Jas. L. Rhodes, Wm. Skillman, Jas. W. Miller and Mat Shrewsbury were nominated for secretary and Mr. Miller was elected.

Upon motion of Mr. Bates, the chair appointed the following committee on Organization and Outline of Work: John Bates, Mat Shrewsbury, Will Skillman, Thos. Flood and Ken Rhodes.

The first Saturday in April at 10 o'clock was set for the next meeting at Hardinsburg, and March 26 for the school district meetings to elect delegates to the county convention.

The following resolutions were drawn up by the committee on organization and adopted:—

1. That this organization shall meet monthly in each district as often as once a month.

2. We don't believe we can control the price of the present tobacco crop on hand, but insist that those who have not sold hold for better price.

3. We ask that there be a person appointed in each school district to report the average and condition of crop.

4. We, the committee believe that the proper time to set prices is before any of the crop is sold and we mean to work toward that end.

5. We think that there should be formed a national union. We recommend the American Society of Equity.

6. We ask that the chair appoint a committee to make further resolutions or amendments and report at next meeting.

In answer to the request in the sixth resolution the chair appointed the following committee: Dennie Sherran, Mat Shrewsbury, Kendrick Rhodes, Everett Lewis, and John Bates.

During the forming of the resolutions the question of fixing the price came up and Mr. Addison moved that the report be amended by fixing the price. After considerable discussion the motion lost.

After a speech to the farmers by President Wilson the meeting adjourned. Mr. Wilson made a good talk and gave the farmers much good advice, which, if carried out, would result in benefit to them and all other working classes.

Tragedy Averted.

"Just in the nick of time our little boy was saved," writes Mrs. W. Watkins of Pleasant City, Ohio. "Pneumonia had played sad havoc with him and a terrible cough set in besides. Doctors treated him, but he grew worse every day. At length we tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and our darling was saved. He's now sound, and well." Everybody ought to know, it's the only cure for Coughs, Colds and all Lung disease. Guaranteed by Short & Haynes, Druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

WANTS TO BE RE-INSTATED.

A. H. Murray filed a petition in the Circuit Court at Hardinsburg yesterday against Louis LaMont for the possession of the Murray Roofing Tile Company's plant, in this city. The plaintiff asks an injunction against LaMont, and that he be enjoined from further control of the property.

Mr. Murray is one of the original incorporators and was the general manager of the plant until some time last fall, when he was succeeded by Mr. LaMont. The plant has not been operated, owing to some differences among the stockholders. Last year a considerable sum of money was spent on the property, and it was about in a condition to be operated, when some differences arose. Mr. Murray claims that he has been wrongfully removed as the general manager and is seeking to be re-instated, so that he can put the plant in operation. The other stockholders live in West Virginia.

Murray & Murray, of Hardinsburg, and V. G. Babbage, of this city, are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

MESSRS. SMITH AND

MCCREARY ON BUSINESS.

Representative David H. Smith, of the Fourth Kentucky Congressional district, takes a position with respect to the Administration at Washington that shows the possession of a very distinct and intelligent idea of his duty to his country over and above the game of politics. He is, for instance, ardent and strong for the Panama treaty and canal. "It is not a question," he says, "of whether the President was too hasty in his recognition of the new Republic of Panama—I may subscribe to sober criticism of that act—but now we have to deal with conditions." That is permissible. The President had a condition to deal with, too. The Panama matter might have come to him under better circumstances, but as it came it had to be dealt with, and arguments about the conditions he met are futile.

Mr. Smith is also for a navy strong enough for protection, and opposes the Democratic "political obstructionists" in their plan of disregarding obligations to complete the ships under contract. In these respects he occupies a position corresponding to that of Senator McCreary, who also voted to ratify the treaty with Panama, instead of holding up the interests of the country, as Senator Blackburn did, merely to advance political maneuvers.

In so voting and speaking Senator McCreary and Mr. Smith set an example to the rest of the Kentucky delegation that might well be imitated. The acts of public men that most recommend them to their constituents are constructive and not obstructive. The records of Kentucky Congressmen are full of names of those who merely opposed any measures on the other side. Such representatives always find quick oblivion.

Mr. Smith would make a better Senator than Mr. Blackburn.—Saturday's Louisville Herald.

Warfield, Alvin and Ben Miller, Porter and John Atwood, Curtis Pate and Geo. Jordan, all young men who reside near this city and in Breckenridge county, took the 10:45 west-bound train here last Wednesday night for Alexis, Ill., where they go to seek positions.

Find Skeleton in Cave.

William Clark and Wade DeJarnette, who live near Patesville, explored an old cave on the former's farm several days ago and found a human skeleton, some Indian tomahawks and other relics. It is supposed, from the relics buried with it, that the skeleton was that of an Indian.

WELL-KNOWN FARMER DIES.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Mar. 1.—(Special.)—Mr. Joseph A. DeJarnette, one of the most prominent farmers of the county, died at his home near Jolly Station, Saturday morning. The funeral services were conducted Sunday at Corinth, the Baptist church, of which he had been an active member for nearly thirty years. The Rev. W. H. Fitzgerald, of Louisville, pastor of the Hardinsburg Baptist church, officiated at the funeral.

A wife and eight children are left to mourn the loss of husband and father. He was a brother of Chas. R. DeJarnette, Stewart, who was formerly sheriff of the county, W. S. and M. C. and Mrs. Judith A. Ball.

The immediate cause of his death was pneumonia. He served on the petit jury during the last term of court. He returned home on Friday and was seized with the illness, which caused his death. He was one of the best families of the county and was widely known as a good man and a good citizen.

Gen. Murray on The Relief of Being Out of Politics.

"No greater relief could ever come to any man than to be removed from the burdensome hurly-burly of politics after he has been busy in this most exhausting field for many years," said former Adjutant General David R. Murray, of Hardinsburg. "I am now one of the plain people of the State. I am practicing law and leading a peaceful life."

"I once asked a tramp artist what picture he would draw if he had the time and talent to produce a masterpiece."

"A house in which the front room was made of cherry wood," he said. "The carpet would be of a bright red. At the fireside would be sitting my wife and children. A big box of cigars would be on the center table. And I would be pacing along in the cold on the outside of the house. 'This is an admirable picture, such one as I dreamed of while Adjutant General, and such a one as I realize now, only I am on the outside of the room.'—Saturday's Louisville Herald.

Proper Treatment of Pneumonia.

Pneumonia is too dangerous a disease for anyone to attempt to doctor himself, although he may have the proper remedies at hand. A physician should always be called. It should be borne in mind, however, that pneumonia always results from a cold or from an attack of the grip, and that by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the threatened attack of pneumonia may be warded off. This remedy is also used by physicians in the treatment of pneumonia with the best results. Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sanders, Ala., who is also a druggist, says of it: "I have been selling Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and prescribing it in my practice for the past six years. I use it in cases of pneumonia and have always gotten the best results." Sold by Short & Haynes.

WHISKY FIGHT ON IN EARNEST.

The local option election, at Stephensport, will be held for the Stephensport precinct on next Monday and the temperance people of that section will make a strong fight the latter part of this week to influence all the voters to come over to their side and help them win the fight. The election was asked for on December 28, 1903, by the prohibition citizens of the precinct and since then they have been doing everything possible to cause the election to result in their favor. The local option speakings, as given below, are expected to help the temperance people in their good and just efforts.

The following speakers will address the voters at Stephensport on local option as follows: Rev. S. O. Christian, of Cloverport, at the Baptist church tonight; Rev. Calvert, at the Methodist church Thursday night; and Judge Mercer and G. W. Beard, of Hardinsburg, at the Baptist church Friday night. Rev. J. C. Hoskinson will address the voters at Sample Thursday night and a temperance lecture will be delivered at Tucker's school-house Saturday night.

Rev. J. H. Lennin and Charley Robbins will speak at Tucker's school house Saturday at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and at Hazel Dell at 7 o'clock in the evening. On Friday night Rev. W. H. Calvert and Jno. P. Haswell, Jr., will speak at Sample and Rev. J. T. Lewis will lecture at Stephensport Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

JNO. W. SHOUSE DEAD.

John W. Shouse, formerly of this city, died Thursday at the Old Soldiers' Home, at Marion, Ind., of which he had been an inmate for several years. Mr. Shouse came to this city in the early seventies. Several years ago he suffered a stroke of partial paralysis and soon after went to the Old Soldier's Home, as he served in the Union army during the Civil War.

The death of Mr. Shouse was received in this city with genuine regret. He was well known here and had many friends who remembered him as a kind-hearted and honest man.

He was a man who probably had not a single enemy. While his health permitted he worked at his trade of plasterer. He suffered much with lung trouble, which, with paralysis, probably hastened his death. He leaves a sister, Mrs. Latimer, of Cannellton.

DEMANDS OPERATION.

Dr. Vance, of Louisville, and Dr. Simons, of this city, held a consultation yesterday and decided that Mr. A. B. Skillman's condition demanded an operation. Accordingly Mr. Skillman was taken to Louisville on the afternoon train to have the necessary operation performed. Mr. Skillman was brought to his home from Hardinsburg last Wednesday.

THE TACKY PARTY.

The local A. O. U. W. lodge gave an enjoyable tacky party in Oelze's hall, Friday evening, which was attended by a fair sized crowd. A small admission was charged at the door and oysters, ice cream etc., was served by the lodge.

No ladies competed for the prizes to be given to the tackiest, but a number of gentlemen took part in the fun.

C. M. Stevens, S. P. Conrad and Frank English were the judges appointed to decide who was the tackiest dressed gentleman. Through a mistake their decisions were not announced correctly during the evening and are here corrected. It was announced that Jno. Neubauer had won the first prize and Geo. Wendelken the second. It should have been Wickliffe DeHaven, first prize, Geo. Wendelken, the second prize.

BIG ROBIN HUNT.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Mar. 1.—(Special.)—The people of the neighborhood of Garfield were indulging in the luxury of robin pie, last week. A robin roost was discovered on the farm of Mr. Frazier Horsley, where the birds by the thousands congregated at night. One evening as many as a hundred persons visited the roost and secured possibly two thousand birds. Audubon, the great naturalist, in one of his books, speaks of a pigeon roost in this county, where the birds by reason of their great number, broke the largest limbs of the tallest trees.

IS STILL MISSING.

Guy Deane, a prominent business man of Owensboro and a relative of the Deanes at Glendean, is strangely missing and there are still no tidings from him. He left Owensboro Feb. 17 for Jackson, Miss., and was to return the following day. His friends at Jackson say he left there Thursday afternoon, the 18 inst., and a number of persons say they saw Mr. Deane in Owensboro on the 24th, but his family scout this idea. The Owensboro Messenger stated yesterday that Mr. Deane's disappearance was still a profound mystery.

CANCER CURED BY BLOOD BALM.

All Skin and Blood Diseases Cured.
Mrs. M. L. Adams, Fredonia Ala., took Botanic Blood Balm which effectually cured an eating cancer of the nose and face. The sores healed up perfectly. Many doctors had given up her case as hopeless. Hundreds of cases of cancer, eating sores, suppurating swellings, etc., have been cured by Blood Balm. Among others, Mrs. B. M. Guernsey, Warrior Stand, Ala. Her nose and lips were raw as beef, with offensive discharge from the eating sores. Doctors advised cutting, but it failed. Blood Balm healed the sores, and Mrs. Guernsey is as well as ever. Botanic Blood Balm also cures eczema itching humors, scabs and scales, bone pains, ulcers, offensive pimples, blood poison, carbuncles, scrofula, rising and bumps on the skin and all blood troubles. Pate she was Miss Emma Thomas, of Hawesville, and a sister of Mr. W. S. Thomas and Miss Mary Thomas, of that place. Besides her husband she leaves four grown sons. The funeral was held at Hawesville Sunday.

YOUNG BOY'S EXHIBIT.

Hardinsburg, Ky., Mar. 1.—(Special.)—Ernest Haswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Haswell, has been accorded the unusual honor of being permitted to have an exhibit at the World's Fair at St. Louis. His exhibit will consist of figures modeled in clay and other material, and will be in the Kentucky building. He is probably the youngest person who will have an individual exhibit at the Fair, and the privilege granted him was determined only by the excellence of his work. It is just recognition of decided talent.
